

Scottish Kennel Club Championship Show 2nd October 2021

Rescheduled from 21st May 2021

MPD (2) 1 Hateley's Valmay The Viceroy. Well presented in great coat and confident temperament. Sweet expression, wedge shaped head and well set ears. Good reach of neck, good body, needs to strengthen a touch in hindquarters which makes him move a little close in rear movement but that will improve with maturity. Very positive on the move with very nice attitude. 2 Saunders' Galateus Bohemia Classic At Torrieglen TAF NAF. Well balanced youngster with good head and expression, more mature but not quite the reach of neck of winner. Good front and body, a little close in rear action but goes well with a nice outline.

PD (4, 1) 1 Hardy's Sandwick Road Runner. Well presented in lovely coat and condition. Well balanced wedge shaped head, almond shaped eyes and good underjaw. Well arched neck of good length, good body, and hindquarters, could be tidier in front action but goes around very well. Best Puppy. 2 Forbes' The Ultimate Bet TAF. Very nice head and expression, well set ears, a little loose in elbows, good body and topline with correct gentle slope over his croup to good tailset, is hindquarters will on the move. 3 Braddish & Braddish's Bradmigail Tauri Gold.

JD (3, 1) 1 Pearson's Edglonian Golden Graham. Top quality dog of nice size, great coat and what a showman! Lovely head with flat skull and well rounded muzzle, sweet expression and well set ears which he uses well, nicely arched neck, well laid shoulders, good body and topline, moves really well covering the ground keeping his great outline, Very close in the challenge. Res CC. 2 Smee's Wansvale Amiable. Another nice sized male with pleasing head and expression, well set ears, not quite the reach of neck or rear movement of winner. Good body and topline, good coat and condition.
